TRADE IS GROWING.

The President Is Pleased With the Senate's Action

In Passing the Canadian Reciprocity Measure.

Could Not Have Won Without Their Help, He Says.

July I.

On the way from Wishington the president had time for a long chat with Senator Penrose, who led the fight for reciprocity, and with Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh and Secretary times and Mr. MacVeagh and Secretary Hilles Mr. Penrose left nim at Philadelphia, Secretary Hilles Mr. Newark, N.

J. and Mr. MacVeagh deserted the party at Boston.

The president had been thinking about a statement, however, and "after sleeping over it," as he put it, decided it should be written and credit be given where credit was one.

With Mrs. Taft and children and Major Butts, he motored for ten miles to Lynn to hear Rev. Dr. Robert Collyor of New York preach at the First Limitarian church. Luncheon over, a stenographer was called in and the statement dictated, the president reserving to the first person, unusual in statements from the Whits House, that it might appear more truly his own.
